Dear Cousin;

I send you the outline, and I shall be glad to fill in any details you may wish, so far as I can. I should be glad to learn from you anything you may find out about the descendants of any others of the large family of 1715-1734 beyond those of the three (3 Josiah, 4 Benj. 10 Samuel) that I know about; or anything about the New York Hodgman's, or the St Louis Lehigh's, if you chance on anything about them.

I wish I wrote as clear a hand as you do, but perhaps you can make out what I have copied for you.

Very truly yours,

(signed) A.W. Hodgman.

Better write to Wilcox, Michigan, and find out that you could like one of the F.H.'s pamphlets. If he has one left, he won't charge anything for them.

They have to do, however, very largely with his line

(4 Benj, born 1711)

I hope I shall hear from you again.

Note;

For the "Hodgman Family" outline referred to above see the following pages as sent to Herbert Nelson Hodgman and copied in several numbers by Grace Miller Le Furge, - Dec 8, 1935. at Bald Eagle Lake, Minn.

Miss Clara Hodgman,
Malden Mass.,

Dear Miss Hodgman:-

Yours of Jan. 6, at hand and I am delighted to find someone interested in the tribe of Hodgman. Many of my letters are not answered, although have been much better success, since I have adopted the plan of sending a form to be filled out.

As to publishing my work, I fear the Hodgman family is too small to warrant the expense. I intend to leave a copy with the N.H. Historic, Genealogical Society, of which I am a member, and then we have one author in my family now. (Mrs) Eleanor H (Hodgman) Porter, author of Pollyanna etc, is my sister.

I found your name and address in the Malden Directory, 1912. Most of the other information is from the notes of Rev. Edwin R. Hodgman, who died several years ago, who worked several years on the "Hodgman Family", a manuscript copy of which is in the N.H. Hist. Gen. Soc's Rooms. It is far from complete.

I have not written to Dr A. V. Hodgman, as all I have of him is "Born Aug 4, 1869. Grad Harvard 1890." I thank you for his address, there are many missing dates of his father's family and others of Josiah's, his grandfather's family, which I shall be pleased to have.

Fred D. Hodgman of Malden, Mass is of the same relationship to you that I am. I will give you our lines and you may do your own figuring.

Fred D.	George	George	Willard	Rueben	Benj.	Thomas	Josiah	Thos
Fred C.	Francis	Francis	Oliver	Benj	Benj	Thomas	Josiah	Thos

We may be nearer related on your mother's side, My paternal grandmother was Mary Fletcher, Granddaughter of Corp Peter Fletcher of Littleton, Mass, he was born in Westford. The line is--
Mary B. Samuel Peter Samuel William Samuel Robert
I have two Fletcher lines.

There was an account of the funeral of Percy Hodgman of Medford in the Boston Globe, of Dec 1914.

I have seen the Boston Directory for 1914. I drove over to Taunton, Mass today and found four Hodgmans in the directory.

If you see mention of any Hodgman in the paper, I would appreciate it very much if you would send it to me, I also appreciate the trouble you are taking in writing letters for data for me. Do you care to know whom your ancestors married etc?

Josiah was a Corp in the Continental Army, or rather he was in a Company who went to re-inforce the Continental Army in Rhode Island 1778. He served for New Hampshire from Merrimack.

Thanking you for your offer of help. I am.

Yours truly.

My Dear Mrs Le Furge:-

In reply to your letter concerning the Hodgman Manuscript Genealogies, we have a manuscript book on the Hodgman Family given by Harriet M. Hodgman.

It is practically the same material as found in the typewritten book, a partial genealogy of the Hodgman Family, compiled by Fred C. Hodgman, Valley Falls, R.I. in 1916.

We are enclosing items, which will interest you, from the Hodgman Manuscript Genealogy and the notes by Arthur W. Hodgman.

Very truly yours,

May 26, 1788, Josiah Hodgman of Chelmsford, Mass., father of the above Josiah, as guardian of his son, Josiah by his wife Rebecca, both deceased, rendered his account.

June 10, 1790 an Act was entered in the N.H. Legislature to permit Oliver Barwell and Daniel Stearns to sell the real estate of Josiah Hodgman, late of Merrimack.

Josiah was a soldier of the Revolution; served for New Hampshire, name appears as corporal, in a muster and payroll of Capt. Peter Cross' Co., Col. FROM DICTIONARY OF GENEALOGY &

NOTES BY ARTHUR W. HODGMAN.

Josiah Hoigman, son of Josiah and Rebecca (Buss) Hoigman, was born in Concord, Mass., March 10? 1747, and died in Merrimack, N.H. before May 26, 1738. His wife was Rebecca; neither the Rev. E.R. Hoigman, nor Mr. Fred Clarke, Hoigman, earlier historians of the HODGMAN FAMILY, had been able to identify this Rebecca, who survived her husband only a short time., and died prior to May 26, 1738.

Their fourth child, Sarah, born in Merrimack Nov. 1 1799, married Abel Taylor. She died in Carlisle, Mass Dec 18, 1867, age 88. The record of her death states that she was born in Merrimack N.H. Daughter of JOSIAH HODGMAN and e-----Foster. It was not a long task to run through the possible Rebeccas in the Foster Genealogy; it turns out that there is only one who could have married Josiah Hodgman, namely Rebecca, daughter of Ebenezer Foster Jr., and his wife Sarah Parker; born in Chelmsford, Mass., January 14, 1750 or 51.

-- HODGMAN HOME --

Refer to History of Carlisle ,Mass., by

FA 54**

1754- 1920

"The Old Hodgman Home", situated nearly one mile from the Village off the Westford ,Mass., road is one of the oldest structures in Carlisle, having been built by John Jacobs in 1783(1783) The house was originally much smaller than it is now. The first building included the eastern portion as far as the east wall of the present front hall. The date when the western front was added is undetermined. Revolutionary style is apparent both in line and decoration, especially so in the dining room, which contains boxed beams and a perfect specimen of the circular cupboard with fluted pilasters and colonial moldings.

Three large fireplaces and a brick oven still remain in excellent condition. The house has changed hands several times since the last Hodgman family lived there and in 1916 it was bought by Rev and Mrs Wilkins of Keene Valley, N.Y.

Extensive improvements have been made, but all the weathered wood and the boxed beams, wide boarded floors etc remain. It is still occupied by the Wilkins family and it is a fine old house on the hill, whose colonial windows have looked out over a worthy community for 137 years. "

The above information was copied by Grace Miller Le Furge for her nephews Robert Fletcher Hodgman, Richard Balir Hodgman and niece Betty* Helen Dorothy Hodgman, who are the direct descendants of JOSIAH HODGMAN, who was born in Carlisle, Mass Feb 13, 1799, being the son of Josiah Hodgman and Sarah Crosby Cummings.

- HODGMAN -

The early colonial records mention the names of two Hodgmanes, Edward and Thomas. Edward Hodgman was a soldier in King Philip's War and was killed in the Turners Falls fight.

Thomas Hodgman .

The first recorded fact is that of his marriage to Mary Morrill, the young widow of Ezekiel Morrill, in Reading, Mass. Aug. 12, 1663. He was a sergt. in the train band, a soldier in King Philip's War, 1676, and became a well-to-do citizen. Lived in Reading and died there Aug. 28, 1729. * Old Mrs Hodgman died Nov 10, 1755.

Josiah Hodgman.

There is no record that Thomas and Mary ever had any children but probably adopted one Josiah Webber, who took the family name of Hodgman. He was born 1668 about, married in Reading, Mass., May 18, 1691, Elizabeth-----, she died Dec. 3, 1711 and he married 2nd, Dec 30 1724 Grace (Eaton) Bouttalls, widow of John. Josiah and Grace had no children. He died Mar 24, 1748-9 She died July 18, 1756.

Thomas Hodgman, only son of Josiah Hodgman (and wife Elizabeth) born Reading, Mass Feb 18, 1692, married Jan. 12, 1713 -14, Abigail Geary of Charlestown and (now Stoneham) Mass. He died in Concord, Mass., Oct 4th, 1739. She married Peter Duss of Concord, Mass., Feb. 9, 1743, and died Jan 13 1757. Thomas and Abigail had a family of nine sons and one daughter, all of whom lived and had families, except David, who died young. Thomas removed from Reading to Lynnfield, Mass about 1729 and from there, in 1753, to Concord, Mass. where he bought a farm of 400 Acres. Five of the sons of Thomas and at least seventeen of his (Hodgman) grandsons were soldiers of the American Revolution.

Josiah Hodgman, third son of Thomas and Abigail (Geary) Hodgman, born, Reading, Mass, Aug 2, 1720

Died, Chelmsford, Mass Feb. 23, 1801.

Married, 1st, Concord, Mass April, 16, 1745, Rebecca Duss, daughter of Peter and Rachel (Fletcher) Duss and born June 10, 1721. She died Concord, Mass, March, 20, 1747. Married 2nd, Concord, Mass, May 31 1749, to Dorothy Wheeler. She died, Chelmsford, Mass, May 13, 1811 aged 89 or 91.

Josiah Hodgman's name is on the list of Lolls, Carlisle, 1754. March 8, 1758, he sold 113 Acres of land to Jeremiah Andrews, of Ipswich, Mass and removed to Chelmsford, Mass. Will of Josiah Hodgman of Chelmsford, allowed April, 14, 1801. Widow

Ezra Fletcher's House, Westford., Mass.,

As sent to E.Fletcher, Westford. Mass , for Tadmuck Club Album, of Old Houses.

This house, now one of the oldest in Westford, Mass was built by Nathan Proctor, the great grandfather of George T Day. The time of building is uncertain, but one of the boards in the kitchen (Before obliterated by paint) could be seen the date 1700.

Chelmsford laid out the road past the house in 1663. In 1730 Nathan Proctor was put on Westford's first voting list, and at that time was living in this house. His son Nathan, sold to James Wright.

Sept 15. 1803 James Wright sold to Ezra Fletcher,

Nov 24, 1831 Ezra Fletcher sold to Othiel Fletcher.

April 24, 1833 Othiel Fletcher sold to Capt Jacob Smith, who gave it to his daughter, Caroline Smith Dewett. She lived there until Nov 29, 1939, when it was bought back by Capt Jacob Smith, Sr and deeded to his son, Jacob Smith, Jr., in whose name it stood until April 15, 1914.

The rafters are put together with wooden pegs, in the kitchen is a solid granite hearth 10 ft, by 4 ft, in the cellarway can be seen the name of OTHEL FLETCHER. In the cellar are square receptacles for coals to keep the fruit etc from freezing. This farm is now owned by Inglis Wetmore. (The above refers to the house in which Sophia Amelia Fletcher Hodgman was born Aug 8, 1830 and which was kept as a tavern by Ezra Fletcher and later by his son, OTHIEL, father of Sophia.)

about the Great, Great Grandfather of James Nelson Hodgman, Florence Jamieson and Arthur Wesley Hodgman.

By Grace Miller de Furtge, a sister-in-law of James Nelson Hodgman and Aunt of Helen D. Robert Fletcher, and Richard Blair Hodgman, of Bald Eagle Lake, Minn., Feb 14, 1935.

Great grandfather Jamieson (on my mother's side) had 3 sets of twins, of whom my Grandfather (David) and John were one pair. John went to Canada many years ago and was never heard from by his relatives.

Grandfather, David Jamieson was born in Glasgow, Scotland and never came to America. He died in September, 1880. He served 21 Yrs. in the Royal Artillery and received a silver medal from Queen Victoria, for services in the battle of Corunna, or rather the badge or ribbon attached to the medal had on it one silver bar, for bravery at battle of Corunna.

He was discharged in 1821 (?) and then engaged in the shoe business, manufacturing, had a good many men in his employ. He died in Montrose (?) Scotland, Sept 1880.

Grandma Jamieson's maiden name was Alice Lewis. She was twice married. Her first husband's name was "Richard", an Army man, by whom she had two children; Mary and Margaret (dead). Mr Richard and David Jamieson were both in the Army, and friends and built a house together, one family living upstairs and one down. Mrs Jamieson died leaving 4 children (?) and Grandma Jamieson (then Mrs Richard) helped them along, and kind of kept house for both families. After Mr Richard's died Grandma married Grandfather Jamieson.

They had 3 children; 1641189

(None of Grandfather Jamieson's children by his first wife are living).

From Bermuda they went back to England and Grandpa (Jamieson) helped bury the dead after the battle of Waterloo after his discharge from the Army he moved to Leaven (?) Scotland, where Uncle David was born and later to Montrose, (Scotland) where Mother was born.

Uncle David and Aunt Sarah were married in Aug 1850. The next month Grandpa Jamieson died and Grandma Jamieson came to America, the following year Feb. 1851.

Several years ago, perhaps 18 or 20 (Probably as many as 20 now, for it must be all of 10 years since Aunt Sarah (Jamieson) told me (letting me know) these facts and I jotted them down.)

Uncle David (Jamieson) received a notice in a Canada paper, calling for the heirs of John Jamieson, who had died leaving $5,000,000, which he had rec'd from Scotland. Uncle David wrote to the lawyer, who had the notice put in the paper, but never heard from him, so never found out whether he was Charles's twin brother or not. - so used to be a bookagent before he received the property.

Aunt Sarah (Jamieson) showed me the medal years ago, so for it descended to Uncle David (Jamieson) and since then to cousin David.

It was a round silver medal worth for silver ~~10~~ 1000 on the edge (it was quite thick), were the words,*

DAVID JAMIESON - QUEEN'S ROYAL ARTILLERY

The medal was round and on one side was the head of Queen Victoria, with the words, -
